

Call for Dancers- LA Area

La Mezcla is seeking 1-2 trained, BIPOC dancers for upcoming development residencies, performances and tour dates through 2023!

Company Overview

La Mezcla is a San Francisco-based dance company and small community arts organization rooted in Latinx, Chicanx, and Indigenous traditions and social justice. La Mezcla's work features historical performance narratives told through Tap Dance, Zapateado Jarocho, Afro-Caribbean traditions, and live music. Founded by Artistic Director Vanessa Sanchez, La Mezcla works to increase access to the arts for communities of color through percussive dance and music, arts education, mentorship, and community engagement. La Mezcla performs regularly in the San Francisco Bay Area and will begin a national tour of their show Pachuquismo in 2022. The new production, Ghostly Labor, will be developed through 2023, premiering at San Francisco's Brava Theater and with Tour Dates at national theaters and community spaces to follow.

Dance Description

La Mezcla is seeking advanced dancers with strong performance quality, musicality, and extensive training in at least 2 of the following styles:

- Tap Dance
- Mexican Zapateado- Zapateado Jarocho, Fandango style preferred
- Afro-Caribbean - Afro-Cuban and/or Afro-Brazilian preferred

Dancers must be available for occasional travel to San Francisco for development residencies (the first to take place in November 2021) and performances, with flexibility for national tour dates in 2023. Travel costs are covered, development residencies and performances are paid.

To Apply

Please send an email to LaMezclaSF@gmail.com that includes:

- A bio with your experience as it relates to this dance role
- Resume
- Videos of you dancing! Please make sure the footage demonstrates the previously mentioned dance styles (additional footage that features different styles also welcome). At least one video in a performance setting preferred.
- Please include "Call for Dancers- LA Area" in the subject line